EVENT: The University Library's VIRTUAL Open Week

DATE: 23rd to 25th June, 2020

THEME: University of Nairobi Library Designing Equitable Foundations for Open Knowledge

This event is strictly for Staff and Students of the University of Nairobi.

This occasion is geared towards promoting Library services so as to enhance access and utilization of information resources.

Being a VIRTUAL event, the Library will have online interactive sessions with participants through Google meet platform to showcase innovative library services.

Participants who may not have time to attend the LIVE sessions can access the recorded Version on the Library website <https://uonlibrary.uonbi.ac.ke/>.

Please arrange to attend and urge your friends to do so and be part of this unique library virtual open week.

You are all welcome
